

SUSTAINING POSITIVE CHANGE FOR ANOTHER TWO DECADES

Virtual Sustainable Investment Conference

Wednesday 9 November | 11:00am – 12:30pm CET

The need for sustainability has only been enhanced by the current crises and the long-term investment case remains as strong as it has ever been over the past two decades.

You will hear from our Sustainable Investment team and companies we invest in about:

- The investment opportunities in a radically changing world and economic environment
- The Energy Transition:
 - the improving case for renewables
 - energy security
 - an equitable and just transition
- The importance of having multiple sustainable investment themes
- The nature of positive change and its link with business success
